The Peace of the World

Whatever our position in life, each one has a work to do, a duty to perform, a love to give, in order that greater achievements and greater happiness may come to all

The Best Benefactor That Manhood Ever Had Among The Nations Of The World Is The United States Of America

THE splendor of its achievements reached the highest water-mark of all the centuries yesterday when the fighting of the four years' war ended and a mighty wave of equality, brotherhood and home government swept over the old world to deliver it from the old systems of government and rebuild the nations along new lines of thought and purpose, such as were wrought out long ago by the fathers of this republic as represented by the American flag.

In this national celebration hundreds of millions of people sat around the tables of victory which were communion tables of good will to the world with a song of all for each, and each for all in the rebuilding of the world.

Peace

Strife at last is ended,
Stilled the din of war;
Wearied men are resting,
Pledged to fight no more.

May this vow of friendship
Keep us all from ill—
"Peace on earth forever,
And to men good will."
